Mountain Homestead Retreat on Encinal Creek nestled on approximately 0.9 acres in beautiful Cleveland, New Mexico. This exceptional mountain property offers the perfect balance of modern comfort, self-sufficiency, and rustic charm. Surrounded by mature evergreen, aspen, willow, and wild plum trees, and framed by the breathtaking Sangre de Cristo Mountains, this peaceful retreat enjoys easy access from Highway 518 while offering the privacy and serenity of mountain living.

Backing directly to Encinal Creek, the property features a fully remodeled 2-bedroom, 2-bathroom home thoughtfully updated to preserve its character while incorporating modern conveniences. Since 2021, extensive improvements have transformed the home, including raised tongue-and-groove ceilings, custom counter tops and kitchen cabinets, luxury vinyl flooring, reconfigured interior walls, custom pine sliding doors and trim, new windows and sliding glass door, fully remodeled bathrooms, updated electrical and plumbing systems, replacement insulation, updated heating, fresh interior paint, and stylish new light fixtures throughout.
